REPORT

OF

THE COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF INTERNAL REVENUE,
Washington, November 18, 1874.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit herewith the tabular statements, made up from the accounts of this Office, which the Secretary of the Treasury is required to lay before Congress, as follows:

Table A, showing the receipts from each specific source of revenue, and the amounts refunded in each collection district, State, and Territory of the United States, for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1874.

Table B, showing the number and value of internal revenue stamps ordered monthly by the Commissioner, the receipts from the sale of stamps, and the commissions allowed thereon; also the number and value of stamps for special taxes, tobacco, cigars, snuff, distilled spirits, and fermented liquors, issued monthly to collectors, during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1874.

Table C, showing the territorial distribution of internal revenue from various sources in the United States for the fiscal years ended June 30, 1864, 1865, 1866, 1867, 1868, 1869, 1870, 1871, 1872, 1873, and 1874.

Table D, showing the aggregate receipts from each collection district, State, and Territory, for the fiscal years ended June 30, 1863, 1864, 1865, 1866, 1867, 1868, 1869, 1870, 1871, 1872, 1873, and 1874.

Table E, showing the total collections from each specific source of revenue for the fiscal years ended June 30, 1863, 1864, 1865, 1866, 1867, 1868, 1869, 1870, 1871, 1872, 1873, and 1874.

Table F, showing the ratio of receipts from specific sources to the aggregate of all collections for the fiscal years ended June 30, 1864, 1865, 1866, 1867, 1868, 1869, 1870, 1871, 1872, 1873, and 1874.

Table G, showing the receipts from special taxes under act of June 6, 1872, in each collection district, State, and Territory, for the special-tax year ended April 30, 1873.

Table H, showing the receipts from special taxes under act of June 6, 1872, in each collection district, State, and Territory, for the special-tax year ended April 30, 1874.

Table I, comparative statement showing the aggregate of special taxes returned under act of June 6, 1872, from each collection district, State, and Territory, during the special-tax years ended April 30, 1873 and 1874, together with the increase or decrease.

Table K, an abstract of reports of district attorneys concerning suits and prosecutions under the internal revenue laws during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1874.

Table L, an abstract of seizures of property for violation of internal revenue laws during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1874.

The aggregate receipts from all sources, exclusive of the duty upon the capital, circulation, and deposits of national banks, and collections made by contract under act of May 8, 1872,* for the fiscal year ended

* $213,225.34 of these collections have been covered into the Treasury, and will appear in the statistical tables of the next annual report.

June 30, 1874, were $102,644,746.98, exceeding my estimate by $2,644,746.98. This amount includes sums refunded and allowed on drawbacks.

My estimate of the receipts for the current fiscal year, under the present law, is $107,000,000.

DRAWBACK.

The following is a statement of the amount of drawback allowed during the fiscal years ended June 30, 1873 and 1874:

	Fiscal year 1873.	Fiscal year 1874.
On spirits	$33,700 20	.....
On tobacco	1,959 30	$7,380 20
On general merchandise	16,686 81	28,115 11
Total	52,346 31	35,495 31

From the above statement it appears there was a net decrease in the amount of drawback allowed during the last fiscal year, as compared with that of the year preceding, of $16,857.00, being a decrease of $33,700.20 on spirits, and an increase of $5,400.90 on tobacco, and $11,428.30 on general merchandise.

No spirits were exported for the benefit of drawback during the year ended June 30, 1874, and the quantity of tobacco exported for the benefit of drawback is very slight in comparison with the quantity exported in bond. It is evident, therefore, that, where the privilege of exportation before the payment of tax has been accorded, exporters have availed themselves of such privilege almost to the exclusion of that authorizing exportation for the benefit of drawback.

The amounts refunded during the last two fiscal years for taxes illegally assessed and collected were—

In 1873	$618,667.77
In 1874	239,749.42

SPIRITS.

The following statement shows the receipts from the several sources relating to distilled spirits for the fiscal years ended June 30, 1873 and 1874, together with the increase or decrease from each source:

Sources.	Receipts for fiscal year 1873.	Receipts for fiscal year 1874.	Increase.	Decrease.

Total	52,099,371 78	49,444,089 85	2,159,707 11	4,814,989 04

Net aggregate decrease, $2,655,281.93.

The above statement shows that, while there was a very considerable increase in the tax on spirits withdrawn from bond and on export spirit-stamps, there was quite a large falling off in the receipts from brandy, the special taxes of dealers and rectifiers, stamps other than tax-paid stamps, and certain sources repealed by act of June 6, 1872.

The decrease in the tax on brandy is owing in great part to the partial failure of the fruit-crop in 1873. A glance at the receipts from this source for the last four years exhibits the fluctuation to which this species of tax is subject. Thus, in 1870, the returns on brandy were $611,915; in 1871, $1,236,006; in 1872, $544,849; in 1873, $2,014,646, and in 1874, $536,681. The annual product varies with the annual yield of fruit from which it is distilled.

The apparent loss in the special taxes of dealers and rectifiers is due to the fact that, since the adoption of the system of paying special taxes by stamps, these taxes have been collected a little earlier each succeeding year. Formerly, a large part of these taxes were returned in July and August; scarcely any before May 1, when they became due. Now, the time of payment is, to a large extent, anticipated, as the following figures will show: In April, 1872, the receipts from special taxes now on the tax-list were $144,573; about the average of the receipts for three or four months previous. In April, 1873, they increased to $566,988, and in April, 1874, to $2,139,030. Thus, $422,416 more were returned in April, 1873, and $1,994,457 more in April, 1874, than in April, 1872; and collections which were formerly made in the first quarter of the fiscal year are now returned in the last quarter of the year immediately preceding it. This being the case, a more correct method probably of ascertaining the increase or decrease of the receipts from special taxes would be by a comparison by special-tax years. Such a comparison of the receipts from rectifiers and dealers in liquors for the special-tax years ended April 30, 1873 and 1874, shows that, instead of there being a decrease of $964,137, as appears from a comparison by fiscal years in the above table, there was an actual increase of $799,413 from those two sources alone. What is here said concerning the special taxes of rectifiers and dealers is also applicable to all other special taxes, the aggregate amount of which returned in the special-tax year 1874 was $1,672,388 more than the amount returned in the preceding special-tax year.

The act of June 6, 1872, so far as it relates to spirits, did not go into operation until August 1, 1872. During one entire month, then, of the fiscal year 1873 the value of warehouse, rectifiers', and dealers' stamps was 25 cents each, instead of 10 cents, their present value under the above-named act. This accounts, wholly or in part, for the decrease in revenue from this source. Certain spirit-taxes were repealed August 1, 1872, some of which, assessed at that time, were not collected prior to the last fiscal year. Two million two hundred and ninety-four thousand nine hundred and fifty-nine dollars less were received from those sources in 1874 than in 1873.

From the above table it appears that during the last fiscal year 2,880 fruit-distilleries were registered and 2,841 operated; and that 709 distilleries other than fruit were registered, and 665 operated.

The following statement shows the number of grain and molasses distilleries in operation at the beginning of each month during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1874:

Being an increase in the number of gallons of the production of 1874 over 1873 of	5,927,820
The tax paid on spirits withdrawn from warehouse during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1874, was	$43,188,870 40

Being an increase in the number of gallons withdrawn in 1874 over that withdrawn in 1873, of	2,021

While the above figures show an increased activity in all operations relating to bonded distilled spirits, it appears that the quantity produced during the year 1874 as compared with that produced during the year 1873 is relatively greater than the quantity withdrawn for all purposes during the year 1874, as compared with the quantity withdrawn for all purposes during the year 1873, leaving a balance of 15,817,709 gallons in warehouse June 30, 1874, which is 2,900,247 gallons more than was in warehouse June 30, 1873, the quantity in warehouse at that time being 12,917,462 gallons. During the first quarter of the present year the demand for distilled spirits has been active, and the quantity withdrawn from warehouse upon payment of tax has exceeded the quantity deposited, so that the balance remaining in warehouse September 30, 1874, has been reduced to 12,577,096 gallons; or a decrease of 3,240,613 gallons as compared with the quantity remaining in warehouse June 30, 1874. The good prices obtained for spirits in the home market has had the effect of diminishing the exportations during the same period, so that whereas the quantity removed from warehouse for export and unaccounted for June 30, 1874, as shown by the above statement, was 2,145,010 gallons, the quantity remaining unaccounted for September 30, 1874, was 1,047,714 gallons, a decrease of 1,097,296 gallons during the three months ended September 30, 1874.

FERMENTED LIQUORS.

The following is a statement showing the receipts from all sources relating to fermented liquors during the fiscal years ended June 30, 1873 and 1874, with the increase or decrease from each source:

Making a total of receipts from the manufacture and sale of tobacco, snuff, and cigars, in all their forms, of $33,242,875.62; and showing, as compared with the previous fiscal year, a decrease of $1,143,427.47.

As compared with the first quarter of the preceding fiscal year, the collections made for the first quarter of the last fiscal year show a decrease to the amount of $1,537,423.60. This decrease was not unexpected, owing to the large quantities of tobacco put upon the market in consequence of the closing out of the bonded warehouses by the act of June 6, 1872, and the increased stimulant given for two or three months to the movement of plug-tobacco by the adoption of the uniform rate of tax at 20 cents per pound by the same act. The decrease during the second quarter, amounting to $1,144,607.53, all of which took place during the months of October and November, 1873, was undoubtedly the result of the financial disturbance of the country. The loss in collections during the two months named was $1,440,781.73. But from the month of November, 1873, up to the present time, there has been a steady increase of collections from this source over any previous corresponding period. The largest amount ever collected in any one quarter from tobacco was collected during the first quarter of the current fiscal year, which reaches the sum of $10,162,954.35. Should corresponding relative collections continue to be made for the remaining three quarters, the receipts from this source will aggregate for the current fiscal year, in round numbers, $36,000,000.

PRODUCTION OF MANUFACTURED TOBACCO.

Taking the amount of taxes collected as the basis for computing the product of manufactured tobacco for the year ended June 30, 1874, the result is as follows:

	Pounds.
Tobacco of all descriptions, taxed at 20 cents per pound	104,502,548
Snuff, taxed at 32 cents per pound	3,245,143
Total quantity on which tax was paid	107,747,691
Adding tobacco, &c., shipped in bond for export	10,800,927
Gives a total production of	118,548,618

pounds for the year, being an increase over the annual production of the preceding fiscal year of 2,107,684 pounds.

The number of cigars, cheroots, &c., on which taxes were collected during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1874, was 1,886,697,498, being in excess of the number on which taxes were collected the previous fiscal year by 79,662,852. This number, however, does not show the actual production of the country for the time specified, inasmuch as there are included in this number the imported cigars which paid an internal revenue tax in addition to the impost duty.

EXPORTATION OF MANUFACTURED TOBACCO.

The quantity of tobacco shown by the records of the Internal Revenue Office to have been removed without the payment of tax, for exportation to foreign countries, was—

	Pounds.
For the year ended June 30, 1874	10,800,927
Exported after the tax had been paid with benefit of drawback	36,901
Total quantity exported during the year	10,837,828

This is in excess of the total quantity exported during the previous fiscal year by 727,783 pounds.

From the preceding figures and comparative statements, it will be seen that while the collections from tobacco show a falling off as compared with the previous fiscal year, the actual production of manufactured tobacco was in excess of any previous year by over two millions of pounds, and the exportation to foreign countries was in excess of any previous year by nearly three-quarters of a million pounds.

Upon the whole, the results for the year are highly satisfactory, and indicate a prosperous condition of this great branch of national industry, and show it to be a reliable source of revenue to the National Treasury, even during a season of general business depression.

But to secure the best results from the tax now imposed by law upon manufactured tobacco, snuff, and cigars, it is indispensably necessary so to control the movements of raw or leaf tobacco as not to allow its direct consumption to diminish the demand for manufactured tobacco.

The enactment of the several leaf-clauses in the act of June 6, 1872, while they most effectually accomplish this object, do not at all interfere with the sale, transfer, or shipment of leaf tobacco for the ordinary purposes of trade and commerce. I therefore strongly urge the continuance of said leaf clauses without amendment or alteration.

THE NEW SYSTEM.

At the time the last annual report was prepared the system inaugurated by the act of December 24, 1872, by which the office of assessor was abolished and the Commissioner authorized and required to make the various inquiries, determinations, and assessments of taxes, had been in operation only five months. Certain beneficial results besides the great annual saving in salaries ($1,600,000) had already been obtained, such as an increase in the receipts from special taxes. It was observed, also, quite unexpectedly, that the receipts of collectors for their lists reached this Office earlier than when prepared by the local assessing officers.

The additional beneficial results which have become apparent during the past year have been sufficient, taken in connection with those already observed, to establish the fact beyond a doubt that the system has secured returns from tax-payers more fully and promptly than heretofore, and consequently a larger amount of tax and a more prompt payment thereof. These facts will more fully appear from the statements subjoined, showing the relative assessments and collections during corresponding periods in 1872, 1873, and 1874.

The amounts assessed during the last special-tax year, commenced May 1, 1873, and ended April 30, 1874, were as follows:

Tax on deficiency in the production of distilled spirits	$163,065 30
Deposits, capital, and circulation of banks, &c	3,427,011 78
Distilled spirits seized or fraudulently removed	168,978 53
Fermented liquors removed from brewery unstamped	16,768 38
Tobacco, snuff, and cigars removed from manufactory unstamped	14,968 48
Proprietary articles removed from manufactory unstamped	7,534 53
Assessed penalties	168,290 09
Legacies and successions	103,025 55
Other taxes, omitted to be assessed by assessors	38,304 38
Unassessed and unassessable penalties, interest, taxes previously abated, conscience-money, and deficiencies in bonded accounts which have been collected; also fines, penalties, and forfeitures paid to collector by order of court or by order of the Secretary, and amounts of penalties and interest received for validating unstamped instruments	352,963 84
Special taxes, (licenses)	324,756 59
Total	4,785,667 45

The foregoing amounts do not show the whole amount of tax collected from each article, as, with the exception of the tax on deposits, capital, and circulation of banks, &c., and the tax on deficiency in the production of distilled spirits, the amount due from delinquent tax-payers only is assessed.

Of the tax against banks and bankers, which remained unchanged by law, there was collected during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1873—

Capital	$736,950 05
Circulation	24,778 62
Deposits	1,835,993 29
		$2,597,721 96

Fiscal year ended June 30, 1874:

Capital	$916,878 15
Circulation	16,738 26
Deposits	2,067,118 77
		3,000,735 18
Showing an increase of		403,013 22

It is believed that this increase may, in a great degree, be fairly attributed to the new system of assessment, as the period in which the increase occurs includes the fall of 1873, memorable for the great financial disasters which occurred at that time. This opinion is further sustained from the circumstance that during this year more than seventy banks have been for the first time assessed, although doing business and liable to be assessed during previous years.

The improvement is still more apparent in the collection of special taxes. The amount collected from this source was, during the last quarter of the fiscal year 1872, $3,303,539.83; during the last quarter of the fiscal year 1873, when the new system was first applied, $5,336,076.49; and during the last quarter of the fiscal year 1874, $5,855,581.36; showing an increase in the last quarter of the fiscal year 1874 over the corresponding periods of 1873 and 1872 of $519,504.82 and $2,552,041.50 respectively.

A similar result has been experienced in the collection of taxes from all other assessable sources. While thus the new system has led to a steady increase of collections, it has also tended to make these collections more prompt and regular.

By the act of June 6, 1872, the tax imposed upon banks and bankers is assessable on the first day of June and December respectively, and is payable semi-annually. The collections from this source, exclusive of the tax on savings banks, which has since been reduced by law, was, in the months of December, 1872, and January, 1873, $1,033,669.57; the amount assessed for the preceding half-year, $1,585,840.67, showing that in the first two months after the tax became due 65.18 per cent. of the total amount assessed was collected, while under the new system the collections in June and July, 1873, were $1,205,790.52 from a semi-annual assessment of $1,498,795.45, giving a rate of 80.45 per cent. for the first two months; and in December, 1873, and January, 1874, we have a collection of $1,587,747.42, from an assessment of $1,928,216.33, increasing the rate of collections to 82.34 per cent.

The law provides for the payment of special taxes on or before the first day of May of each year.

The collections of special taxes during the months of April, May, and June were as follows:

Year.	April.	May.	June.
1872	$144,572 74	$1,487,966 35	$1,671,000 74
1873	566,988 26	3,796,740 82	972,347 38
1874	2,139,029 66	3,236,082 79	480,468 91

A large yearly increase of collections for the first two months, and consequent decrease for the third.

MISCELLANEOUS.

For the past three years all spirit, tobacco, cigar, and beer stamps, with the exception of the class denominated "strip-stamps," have been printed in two colors, the borders, or tints, being printed by the Continental and National Bank-Note Companies of New York, and the second printing by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing of the Treasury Department. The strip stamps were also printed by said Bureau.

The contracts with the bank-note companies having expired, it was determined, after a full consideration of the subject, to advertise for proposals for the printing of all the above stamps, and accordingly an advertisement, dated July 21, 1874, was issued, and the bids were opened August 25, 1874.

The proposals submitted revealed the fact that, taking the issue of stamps during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1874, and the prices paid to the Bureau of Engraving and Printing and Continental and National Bank-Note Companies for printing the same as bases, and having the tints or borders printed by the process known as "surface printing" instead of by "plate printing" as heretofore, a saving might be effected of about seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) per annum. Contracts were therefore made with the bank-note companies making the lowest bids, and the work has been commenced.

It is suggested that inasmuch as a fully equipped Bureau of Engraving and Printing is maintained by the General Government, that the head of that office be required to submit estimates for the printing of all internal revenue stamps when bids for the same are advertised for, to be opened and considered as are like bids by individuals or companies; or, that the head of that Bureau be authorized and required, on requisition by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, to furnish all stamps necessary under the law, except proprietary and documentary. The latter plan would seem to be the more convenient, inasmuch as the necessary appropriations would all be made to the one Bureau, (Engraving and Printing.) It is greatly to be desired that Congress should make some positive provision in regard to this matter.

I respectfully call the attention of Congress to the recommendations in my last annual report in relation to the pay of supervisors and collectors, and again urge that the rates therein proposed be provided for by law, to apply to the current year and succeeding fiscal years.

House bill No. 3572, of the last session, provided in several important instances for the improvement of the internal revenue system, but unfortunately, in that respect, failed to pass the Senate. Several of those provisions will be recommended again by this Office for adoption.

The total receipts from stamps on bank checks, &c., perfumery, cosmetics, patent medicines, matches, &c., (being the remnants of what was known under the revenue laws originally as documentary and proprietary stamps,) were for the last fiscal year $6,136,844.64. If Congress should wish to abolish these remnants, and still are of the opinion that the revenue could not be diminished with safety, an equivalent could be had by increasing the tax on spirits 10 cents per gallon. This would yield, estimating on the number of taxable gallons produced during the last fiscal year, $6,957,000.

An additional tax on tobacco of 4 cents per pound, estimating on a corresponding basis, (excluding snuff,) would yield $4,612,000.

Since the passage of the act of June 22, 1874, repealing so much of the act of May 8, 1872, as provides for the employment of persons to assist the proper officers of the Government in discovering and collecting moneys withheld, various parties have from time to time given information which they assert shows, or tends to show, that the persons and corporations named by them have withheld money belonging to the United States as internal revenue tax. This information has usually be n accompanied by a claim to the general reward of (not to exceed) ten per cent. of the amount which may eventually be realized by the Government, a reward offered under the authority of section 39 of the act of June 6, 1872, entitled "An act to reduce duties on imports, and to reduce internal taxes, and for other purposes." The information thus obtained has been furnished by this Office to the proper internal revenue officers, with instructions to make a prompt investigation of each case, and to take the steps necessary for the collection of all amounts ascertained to be due. The parties from whom it was obtained have been referred to those officers and have been requested to give them such further information on the subject as they may possess. Some amounts have already been realized in this way; but a large majority of the cases reported are still undergoing investigation and are in different stages of advancement. Taxes due under repealed laws have, however, been collected to a considerable amount by the internal revenue officers without the aid of other parties. The sum thus collected during the last fiscal year was something over $625,000. During the first quarter of the present fiscal year there was collected over $184,000, and further collections are continually being made.

Respectfully,

J. W. DOUGLASS,
Commissioner.

Hon. B. H. BRISTOW,
Secretary of the Treasury.
