Caution: DRAFT—NOT FOR FILING

This is an early release draft of an IRS tax form, instructions, or publication, which the IRS is providing for your information. Do not file draft forms. We incorporate all significant changes to forms posted with this coversheet. However, unexpected issues occasionally arise, or legislation is passed—in this case, we will post a new draft of the form to alert users that changes were made to the previously posted draft. Thus, there are never any changes to the last posted draft of a form and the final revision of the form. Forms and instructions are subject to OMB approval before they can be officially released, so we post drafts of them until they are approved. Drafts of instructions and pubs usually have some additional changes before their final release. Early release drafts are at IRS.gov/DraftForms and remain there after the final release is posted at IRS.gov/LatestForms. Also see IRS.gov/Forms.

Most forms and publications have a page on IRS.gov: IRS.gov/Form1040 for Form 1040; IRS.gov/Pub501 for Pub. 501; IRS.gov/W4 for Form W-4; and IRS.gov/ScheduleA for Schedule A (Form 1040), for example, and similarly for other forms, pubs, and schedules for Form 1040. When typing in a link, type it into the address bar of your browser, not a Search box on IRS.gov.

If you wish, you can submit comments to the IRS about draft or final forms, instructions, or pubs at IRS.gov/FormsComments. Include “NTF” followed by the form or pub number (for example, “NTF1040”, “NTFW4”, “NTF501”, etc.) in the body of the message to route your message properly. We cannot respond to all comments due to the high volume we receive and may not be able to consider many suggestions until the subsequent revision of the product, but we will review each “NTF” message. If you have comments on reducing paperwork and respondent (filer) burden, with respect to draft or final forms, please respond to the relevant information collection through the Federal Register process; for more info, click here.

Line 1. Line 1 was expanded to include a new column to enter codes to provide additional information relating to gain or (loss) associated with acquisitions, dispositions, or other transactions.

Line 2. Line 2 was expanded to provide separate reporting of rental real estate gross rents and other income related to rental real estate activity.

Line 15. The entry space for line 15 was designated as lines 15 through 17 to allow reporting from the new Schedule A (Form 8825), Rental Real Estate Other Deductions. This reporting is only required for partnerships and S corporations that have an M-3 filing requirement. Subsequent lines have been renumbered.

General Instructions

Purpose of Form

Partnerships and S corporations use Form 8825 to report income and deductible expenses from rental real estate activities, including net income (loss) from rental real estate activities that flow through from partnerships, estates, or trusts.

Before completing this form, see Passive Activity Limitations in the instructions for Form 1065 or Form 1120-S, especially for the definition of "rental activity."

Specific Instructions

If you have more than four rental real estate properties, page 2 of Form 8825 has been redesigned to allow four additional entries. Complete and attach as many additional pages needed to list all your rental real estate properties. Complete lines 1 through 19 for each property. Complete lines 20a through 23 on page 1 only once. The figures on lines 20a and 20b should be the combined totals from all pages.

The number of columns to be used for reporting income and expenses on this form may differ from the number of rental real estate activities the partnership or S corporation has for purposes of the passive activity limitations. For example, a partnership owns two apartment buildings, each located in a different city. For purposes of the passive activity limitations, the partnership grouped both buildings into a single activity. Although the partnership has only one rental real estate activity for purposes of the passive activity limitations, it must report the income and deductions for each building in separate columns.

However, if the partnership or S corporation has more than one rental real estate activity for purposes of the passive activity limitations, attach a statement to Schedule K that reports the net income (loss) for each separate activity. Also, attach a statement to each Schedule K-1 that reports each partner's or shareholder's share of the net income (loss) by separate activity. See Passive Activity Reporting Requirements in the instructions for Form 1065 or 1120-S for additional information that must be provided for each activity.

Don't report on Form 8825 any of the following.

- Income or deductions from a trade or business activity or a rental activity other than rental real estate. These items are reported elsewhere.
- Portfolio income or deductions.
- Section 179 expense deduction.
- Other items that must be reported separately to the partners or shareholders.
- Commercial revitalization deductions.

Line 14—Depreciation

The partnership or S corporation may claim a depreciation deduction each year for rental property (except for land, which is not depreciable). See Form 4562 and its instructions to figure the depreciation deduction.
