Dear Applicant:

We have considered your application for recognition of exemption from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The information submitted discloses that you were incorporated on [REDACTED] under the nonprofit corporation laws of the State of [REDACTED].

The purpose for which you were formed are to design, install, and operate a communication system involving a network of electronic paging units to service the basic communications needs of its member hospitals, their staff and others within the medical community of metropolitan [REDACTED]. In addition, to serve as licensee of a shared radio paging system authorized under regulations of the Federal Communications Commission to provide paging service to its members and other eligible users in the [REDACTED] metropolitan area.

Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code provides for exemption of "business leagues, chambers of commerce, real estate boards, boards of trade, or professional football leagues (whether or not administering a pension fund for football players), not organized for profit and no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual."

Section 1.501(c)(6)-1 of Income Tax Regulation reads as follows:
"BUSINESS LEAGUES, CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE, REAL ESTATE BOARDS AND BOARDS OF TRADE. A business league is an association of persons having some common business interest, the purpose of which is to promote such common interest and not to engage in a regular business of a kind ordinarily carried on for profit. It is an organization of the same general class as a chamber of commerce or board of trade. Thus, its activities should be directed to the improvement of business conditions of one or more lines of business as distinguished from the performance of particular services for individual persons. An organization whose purpose is to engage in a regular business of a kind ordinarily carried on for profit, even though the business is conducted on a cooperative basis or produces only sufficient income to be self-sustaining, is not a business league. An association engaged in furnishing information to prospective investors, to enable them to make sound investments, is not a business league, since its activities do not further any common business interest, even though all of its income is devoted to the purpose stated. A stock or commodity exchange is not a business league, a chamber of commerce, or a board of trade within the meaning of section 501(c)(6) and is not exempt from tax. Organizations otherwise exempt from tax under this section are taxable upon their unrelated business taxable income. See sections 511 to 513, inclusive and the regulations thereunder.

According to your application the organization has entered into an agreement with [REDACTED]. Pursuant to the agreement, [REDACTED] receives a fee from [REDACTED] for its service as licensee and for billing and collecting paging system user fees.

Revenue Ruling 71-175 states that a nonprofit organization that has as its principal activity the operation of a telephone answering service for member doctors is not exempt under Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Because of the above described operation your activities are aimed at the performance of particular services for your individual members as distinguished from the improvement of business conditions generally as required by Section 1.501(c)(6) of the Income Tax Regulations.

We have concluded that you do not qualify for exemption from Federal Income Tax as an organization described in Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, you are required to file Federal income tax returns on Form 1120, annually with your District Director.

If you do not agree with these conclusions, you may within thirty days from the date of this letter, file a brief of the facts, law and arguments (in duplicate) which clearly sets forth your position. In the event you desire an oral discussion of the issues, you should so indicate in your submission. A conference will be arranged in the Regional Office after you have submitted your brief to the Chicago District Office and we have had an opportunity to consider the brief and it appears that the conclusions reached are still unfavorable to you. Any submission must be signed by one of your principal officers. If the matter is to be handled by a representative, the Conference and Practice Requirements regarding the filing of a power of attorney and evidence of enrollment to practice must be met. We have enclosed Publication 892, Exempt Organization Appeal Procedures for Adverse Determinations, which explains in detail your rights and procedures.

If you agree with this determination, please sign and return the enclosed Form 6013.

Sincerely yours,

[REDACTED]
District Director
