CERTIFIED MAIL – Return Receipt Requested

Dear

Why you're receiving this letter

If you agree

If you haven't already, please sign the enclosed Form 6018, Consent to Proposed Action, and return it to the contact person shown at the top of this letter. We'll issue a final adverse letter determining that you aren't an organization described in IRC Section 501(c)(7) for the periods above.

If you disagree

- 1. Request a meeting or telephone conference with the manager shown at the top of this letter.
- 2. Send any information you want us to consider.
- 3. File a protest with the IRS Appeals Office. If you request a meeting with the manager or send additional information as stated in 1 and 2, above, you'll still be able to file a protest with IRS Appeals Office after the meeting or after we consider the information.

The IRS Appeals Office is independent of the Exempt Organizations division and resolves most disputes informally. If you file a protest, the auditing agent may ask you to sign a consent to extend the period of limitations for assessing tax. This is to allow the IRS Appeals Office enough time to consider your case. For your protest to be valid, it must contain certain specific information, including a statement of the facts, applicable law, and arguments in support of your position. For specific information needed for a valid protest, refer to Publication 892, How to Appeal an IRS Determination on Tax-Exempt Status.

Fast Track Mediation (FTM) referred to in Publication 3498, The Examination Process, generally doesn't apply now that we've issued this letter.

4. Request technical advice from the Office of Associate Chief Counsel (Tax Exempt Government Entities) if you feel the issue hasn't been addressed in published precedent or has been treated inconsistently by the IRS.

If you're considering requesting technical advice, contact the person shown at the top of this letter. If you disagree with the technical advice decision, you will be able to appeal to the IRS Appeals Office, as explained above. A decision made in a technical advice memorandum, however, generally is final and binding on Appeals.

If we don't hear from you

If you don't respond to this proposal within 30 calendar days from the date of this letter, we'll issue a final adverse determination letter.

Contacting the Taxpayer Advocate Office is a taxpayer right

The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) is an independent organization within the IRS that can help protect your taxpayer rights. TAS can offer you help if your tax problem is causing a hardship, or you've tried but haven't been able to resolve your problem with the IRS. LAW:

IRC § 501(c)(7) exempts from federal income tax clubs organized for pleasure, recreation, and other non-profitable purposes, substantially all of the activities of which are for such purposes and not part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder.

Section 1.501(c)(7) of the Regulations provides that, in general, the exemption extends to social and recreation clubs supported solely by membership fees, dues and assessments. However, a club that engages in a business, such as making its social and recreational facilities open to the general public, is not organized and operated exclusively for pleasure, recreation and other non-profitable purposes, and is not exempt under section 501(a).

Prior to its amendment in 1976, IRC § 501(c)(7) required that social clubs be operated exclusively for pleasure, recreation and other nonprofitable purposes. Public Law 94-568 amended the "exclusive" provision to read "substantially' in order to allow an IRC § 501(c)(7) organization to receive up to 35 percent of its gross receipts, including investment income, from sources outside its membership without losing its tax exempt status. The Committee Reports for Public Law 94-568 (Senate Report No. 94-1318 2d Session, 1976-2 C.B. 597) further states;

(a) Within the 35 percent amount, not more than 15 percent of the gross receipts should be derived from the use of a social club's facilities or services by the general public. This means that an exempt social club may receive up to 35 percent of its gross receipts from a combination of investment income and receipts from non-members, so long as the latter do not represent more than 15 percent of total receipts.

| Form 886A | Department of the Treasury - Internal Revenue Service Explanation of Items | Schedule No. or Exhibit |
| Name of Taxpaver | | Year/Period Ended |

- (b) Thus, a social club may receive investment income up to the full 35 percent of its gross receipts if no income is derived from non-members' use of club facilities.
- (c) In addition, the Committee Report states that where a club receives unusual amounts of income, such as from the sale of its clubhouse or similar facilities, that income is not to be included in the 35 percent formula.

Revenue Ruling 66-149 holds a social club as not exempt as an organization described in IRC § 501(c)(7) where it derives a substantial part of its income from non-member sources.

Revenue Ruling 60-324 states by making its social facilities available to the general public the club cannot be treated as being operated exclusively for pleasure. recreation or other non-profitable purposes.

Revenue Procedure 71-17 sets forth the guidelines for determining the effect of gross receipts derived from the general public's use of a social club's facilities on exemption under IRC § 501(c)(7). Where nonmember income from the usage exceeds the standard as outlined in this Revenue procedure, the conclusion reached is that there is a non-exempt purpose and operating in this manner jeopardizes the organization's exempt status.

The central purpose of social clubs is to provide benefits to members, including access to social and recreational facilities such as club houses, golf courses, and swimming pools. When such benefits are funded by members, exemption has been justified by Congress on the theory that the members will be in the same position as if they had paid for the benefits directly. The practical effect of the exemption is to allow individuals to join together to provide themselves with recreational or social opportunities on a mutual basis without further tax consequences. The individual member is in substantially the same position as if he or she had spent his or her after-tax income on pleasure or recreation without the intervening organization.

Consequently, the exemption for social clubs operates properly only if the club's income is derived exclusively from members. As described in Internal Revenue Code §512(a)(3)(B), Income derived by clubs from outside of their membership (e.g., non-member green and cart fee income), operated to subsidize the recreational facilities or activities for the members, is required to be reported and taxed through Form

Furthermore, where a makes its facilities available to the general public to a substantial degree, is not operated exclusively for the pleasure and recreation of its members. The income is coming from the public or non-members to be used in defraying membership costs. In general, social cubs can receive up to 35 percent of their gross receipts, including investment income, from sources outside their membership. Within the 35 percent, not more than 15 percent should be derived from the use of the club's facilities or services by non-members.

The reported Unrelated Business Income ($ - % of the gross receipts $) alone exceeds the 15% threshold and would lead to revocation of its exemption status. In addition, received the following non-member incomes which were not included in its return: Incomes from Advertising Signs, Tournament, and House Rental.

We identified that is generating income from selling advertising space in the golf course open to members and nonmembers, which is nontraditional business activities (non-exempt function income). Advertising income derived from members or non-members is unrelated business income under IRC 512(a)(3)(A) because it is not exempt function income. The sale of advertising is a nontraditional business activity because it does not further the pleasure and recreational needs of members or facilitate the use of for recreational or social activity.

Through Information Document Requests, we solicited non-member portion of the tournament income along; however, decided not to respond to the request (). Therefore, we considered all of the tournament income as Unrelated Business Income.

We identified a rental of the house to a non-member, . The rental of rooms to non-members primarily serves to provide housing and does not further recreational purposes. A social club that receives substantial rental income and uses that income to defray operating expenses and to improve and expand its facilities isn't exempt under IRC 501(c)(7).

Based on conducting a analysis of gross receipts, received % and % from non-members, during tax years ending and , respectively. The percentages would be further increased to % and % if non-reported Unrelated Business Incomes, such as Advertisement Sign Sales and House Rental, are included in the calculation:

If revocation is not upheld, is responsible for making adjustments to Form for periods ending and , adding the unreported Unrelated Business Incomes.

CONCLUSION:

no longer qualifies for exemption under IRC § 501(c)(7) because its Unrelated Business Income has exceeded the 15% or 35% threshold on a continuing basis. Therefore, it is proposed that Taxpayer's exempt status under IRC § 501(c)(7) of the Code be revoked for tax years

If revocation is not upheld, as a result of our examination, we have determined that is liable for making adjustments to add the identified unreported Unrelated Business Incomes to Form
