Dear :

This letter responds to your authorized representative's letter dated September 4, 2024, and subsequent correspondence, requesting an extension of time under § 2642(g) of the Internal Revenue Code and § 26.2642-7 of the Generation-Skipping Transfer (GST) Tax Regulations to allocate GST exemption to transfers to a trust.

The facts and representations submitted are as follows:

Grantor established and funded Trust 1 in Year 1. Grantor made an additional transfer to Trust 1 in Year 2. The trustee of Trust 1 may make distributions of income and principal to Grantor's issue for their health, education, maintenance, and support. Trust 1 further provides that Grantor intends for Trust 1 to primarily benefit his grandchildren and more remote issue and, therefore, distributions to Grantor's children are only to be made if no other income or other resources are reasonably available. On the date that is the later of the death of Grantor, Grantor's spouse, and the time at which all living children reach the age of a, Trust 1 will be divided into as many equal shares as there are children of Grantor then living and children of Grantor then deceased leaving issue then living, each share to be held as a separate trust. The trustee may make distributions of income and principal to the beneficiaries of the divided trusts for their health, education, maintenance, and support. The remainder of each separate trust will be distributed to the remaining beneficiaries upon the close of the perpetuities period applicable under state law.

Grantor established and funded Trust 2 in Year 2. The trustee of Trust 2 may make distributions of income and principal to Grantor's issue for their health, education, maintenance, and support. On the date that is the later of the death of Grantor, Grantor's spouse, and the time at which all living children reach the age of a, Trust 2 will be divided into as many equal shares as there are children of Grantor then living and children of Grantor then deceased leaving issue then living, each share to be held as a separate trust. The trustee may make distributions of income and principal to the beneficiaries of the divided trusts. The remainder of each separate trust will be distributed to the remaining beneficiaries upon the close of the perpetuities period applicable under state law.

Grantor engaged Accountant to prepare his Form 709, United States Gift (and Generation-Skipping Transfer) Tax Return, for Year 2. Grantor intended that the transfers to Trust 1 and Trust 2 would benefit his grandchildren. Accountant prepared Grantor's Year 2 Form 709 and on the return the election under § 2632(c)(5) to opt out of automatic allocation of GST exemption was mistakenly made. Accordingly, no GST exemption was allocated to Donor's Year 2 transfers to Trust 1 or Trust 2.

Grantor represents that Grantor had sufficient GST exemption available to allocate to the Year 2 transfers to Trust 1 and Trust 2 so that if relief were granted, each trust would have a zero inclusion ratio.

Grantor requests an extension of time to allocate GST exemption to the transfers made to Trust 1 and Trust 2 in Year 2.

LAW AND ANALYSIS

Section 2601 imposes a tax on every generation-skipping transfer. A generation-skipping transfer is defined under § 2611(a) as (1) a taxable distribution, (2) a taxable termination, and (3) a direct skip.

Section 2602 provides that the amount of the tax imposed by § 2601 is the taxable amount multiplied by the applicable rate.

Section 2631(a) provides that, for purposes of determining the inclusion ratio, every individual shall be allowed a GST exemption which may be allocated by such individual (or his executor) to any property with respect to which such individual is the transferor.

Section 2631(b) provides that any allocation under § 2631(a), once made, shall be irrevocable.

Section 2632(a)(1) provides that an individual's GST exemption may be allocated at any time on or before the date prescribed for filing the estate tax return for such individual's estate (determined with regard to extensions), regardless of whether such return is required to be filed. Section 2632(a)(2) provides that the manner in which allocations are to be made shall be prescribed by forms or regulations issued by the Secretary.

Section 2632(c)(1) provides that if any individual makes an indirect skip during such individual's lifetime, any unused portion of such individual's GST exemption shall be allocated to the property transferred to the extent necessary to make the inclusion ratio for such property zero. If the amount of the indirect skip exceeds such unused portion, the entire unused portion shall be allocated to the property transferred.

Section 2632(c)(3)(A) provides that for purposes of this subsection, the term "indirect skip" means any transfer of property (other than a direct skip) subject to the tax imposed by chapter 12 made to a GST trust.

Section 2632(c)(5)(A)(i) provides that an individual may elect to have the automatic allocation rules not apply to (I) an indirect skip, or (II) any or all transfers made by such individual to a particular trust.

Section 2642(b)(1)(A) provides that, except as provided in § 2642(f), if the allocation of the GST exemption to any transfers of property is made on a gift tax return filed on or before the date prescribed by § 6075(b) for such transfer or is deemed to be made under § 2632(b)(1) or (c)(1), the value of such property for purposes of § 2642(a) shall be its value as finally determined for purposes of chapter 12 (within the meaning of § 2001(f)(2)), or, in the case of an allocation deemed to have been made at the close of an estate tax inclusion period, its value at the time of the close of the estate tax inclusion period.

Section 2642(g)(1)(A) provides that the Secretary shall by regulation prescribe such circumstances and procedures under which extensions of time will be granted to make an allocation of GST exemption described in § 2642(b)(1) or (2), and an election under § 2632(b)(3) or (c)(5). Such regulations shall include procedures for requesting comparable relief with respect to transfers made before the date of the enactment of § 2642(g).

Section 2642(g)(1)(B) provides that in determining whether to grant relief under this paragraph, the Secretary shall take into account all relevant circumstances, including evidence of intent contained in the trust instrument or instrument of transfer and such other factors as the Secretary deems relevant. For purposes of determining whether to grant relief under this paragraph, the time for making the allocation (or election) shall be treated as if not expressly prescribed by statute.

Section 26.2642-7 of the Generation-Skipping Transfer Tax Regulations sets forth the procedures for requesting an extension of time to make an allocation of GST exemption described in § 2642(b)(1) or (2), and an election under § 2632(b)(3) or (c)(5), and the standards used to determine whether relief may be granted.

Section 26.2642-7(d)(1) provides that requests for relief will be granted when and to the extent that the transferor or the executor of the transferor's estate provides evidence establishing to the satisfaction of the IRS that the transferor or the executor of the transferor's estate acted reasonably and in good faith, and that the grant of relief will not prejudice the interests of the government.

Section 26.2642-7(d)(2) provides a nonexclusive list of factors that will be considered in determining whether the transferor or the executor of the transferor's estate acted reasonably and in good faith for purposes of § 26.2642-7, including reasonable reliance by the transferor or the executor of the transferor's estate on the advice of a qualified tax professional.

Based on the facts submitted and the representations made, we conclude that the requirements of § 26.2642-7 have been satisfied. Therefore, Grantor is granted an extension of time of 120 days from the date of this letter to allocate Grantor's GST exemption to the Year 2 transfers to Trust 1 and Trust 2.

The allocation of GST exemption should be made on an amended Form 709 for Year 2. The Form 709 should be filed with the Internal Revenue Service at the following address: Internal Revenue Service Center, ATTN: E&G, Stop 824G, 7940 Kentucky Drive, Florence, KY 41042-2915.
